MEETING OF LUMBER DEALERS.

They Attend to Routine Business and Discuss Topics That Concern Them.

The Indiana Lumber Dealers' Association held its annual meeting yesterday at the New Denison Hotel. About fifty gentlemen were in attendance. President C. C. Foster of this city being in the chair. The latter made a brief address, reviewing the events of the year, which he said had been a fairly prosperous one, as a rule, for lumbermen in this State. The practical benefits of their association had been exhibited in many ways in the matter of adopting suggestions that had been thrown out at the last annual meeting.

It was found that there was very little business to come before the association. A few slight changes were suggested in the constitution, and a committee was appointed to formulate them. The most important was that of changing the time of the annual meeting to winter. The next meeting will, therefore, be held late next December. Methods of extending the membership were discussed by W. F. Stillwell, of Lafayette, and others. Every member was urged to consider himself a committee of one to solicit lumbermen to join the association.

The report of the committee on officers for next year was accepted with a unanimous vote. It was as follows:

President—Dwight Fraser, Indianapolis.

Vice-president—John Kirby, Muncie.

Secretary and Treasurer—W. B. Allen, Indianapolis.

Director—W. F. Stillwell, Lafayette.

The best method of unloading logs and lumber was then the subject of a general discussion, nearly every member of the association giving his experience in the matter. The association then adjourned.

The members of the association are, as a rule, protectionists and Republicans, although the benefits of the tariff are probably as indirect to them as to any other class. Regarding the matter, Mr. W. B. Blair, of Brazil, said yesterday: "I am a high protectionist, first and all the time. The present tariff on lumber is $1.50 per thousand feet, or a little over 10 per cent. of its value. The Mills bill takes the tariff off lumber, provided the Canadian government takes its tariff off logs. We cannot easily compete with dealers on that side of the line. The land there all belongs to the government, which rents it out for a certain period of time, with the privilege of clearing away the timber. As you can easily see, that enables lumbermen to sell cheaper than they would if they were forced to buy the land or buy lumber from private owners of land."

READY FOR LONG SERVICE

Voters Enlisting for Energetic Work During Several Months' Campaign.

Rousing Meetings in the Wards, with Large Clubs of Colored Men Coming in to Swell the Enthusiastic Republican Ranks.

The meeting of the Republicans of the Ninth ward, with whom those of the Eighth joined, at Reichwein's Hall, corner of Market and Noble streets, was largely attended last night. The hall has been donated for campaign purposes, and it is intended to elaborate it with flags and campaign emblems at an early date, so that it may be used as a regular meeting-place for the club, which has already been organized. The object of the meeting last night was simply to receive the names of additional signers to the already large roll, and over one hundred names were added. An original campaign song was rendered by the Ninth-ward Glee Club, composed of Andrew Smith, George Gadd, John and Clarence Martindale, and as they closed with the chorus, "The Democratic Ship Is Just About Wrecked," they were loudly applauded.

Hon. John L. Griffiths, who had been invited to address the club, was introduced. His impressive delivery at once caught the hearers, and he was given perfect attention throughout. He dwelt at considerable length upon the action of the Chicago convention and of the men it nominated. General Harrison, as a man, he said, was the equal, if not the superior of any man presented. As the speaker pictured the advantages of General Harrison as a candidate to the party, cheer after cheer went up for the national nominee. Mr. Griffiths then entered upon a careful consideration of the tariff question, ably showing the relations of the Republican party to the laboring men. The past administration, he said, had clearly shown to the American people the fallacy of Democratic principles, and a restoration of the Republican party to power is the only hope of maintaining the interests of American industries and American labor. General Harrison is the exponent of this idea. His past record as a statesman has proved it, and to-day even his political enemies can record of his action a truly adverse to this doctrine. In conclusion, the speaker gave a graphic description of the advantages this Nation offered to workmen, and described what the prospect was for a free-trade system prevailed. This system would follow the re-election of Cleveland. The club will adopt a regular uniform, and expect to participate in all campaign movements.

Colored Men's Organization.

The Harrison young men's club, composed of the colored men of the North Side who cast their first vote this year, organized last night, at No. 171 Indiana avenue. Seventy-four were enrolled, and great enthusiasm was manifested. Speeches were made by William Lewis, Timothy Taylor and others. No steps were taken toward permanent organization except the election of officers, with the following results: President, William Lewis; vice-presidents, John Owen and Joseph Royles; secretary, John Carter; assistant, Timothy Taylor; and treasurer, Walter Brown. An executive committee, with Henry Furnace as chairman, will report next Tuesday night upon permanent organization. The club will hereafter meet every Tuesday night, at the place of last night's meeting.

About sixty colored men in the neighborhood of Loyal Lane Church, on Virginia avenue, met at that place last night and organized a club, which is to be known as the John Brown Harrison Club. It is proposed to extend the membership to 100, and the officers of this club can be easily done, as there is no discount on the Republicanism of the colored voters, notwithstanding an attempt to organize an independent party. That movement was denounced at this meeting, and the more severe and denunciatory a speaker was in referring to it as a Democratic bid for voters, the louder he was applauded. The independent are regarded as Democrats in disguise by the John Brown Harrison Club. The speakers by W. H. Furnace and Preston Ritchie, the officers were elected as follows:

President—W. H. Furnace.

Secretary—Walter Stevenson.

Treasurer—Green Dixon.

An incident of the evening was the singing of the chorus, "John Brown's Soul Goes Marching On," in which everybody joined. It was sung as only that musically inspired people can do it, and after the last refrain the enthusiasm burst forth in three rousing cheers and a tiger for Harrison and Morton. The club will meet every Tuesday evening during the campaign.

The Railroad Men's Club.

The executive committee of the Railroad Men's Harrison and Morton Club met last evening, and adopted the following:

Whereas, The Democratic party, through its official mouthpiece, the Indianapolis Daily Sentinel, has presumed to ridicule the men filling the various minor positions on our railways by calling them would-be railroad men and forty-dollar clerks; and

Whereas, The majority of our great railway managers having begun their railway career as forty-dollar clerks in other minor positions; and

Whereas, The Harrison and Morton Railroad Club of Indianapolis, fully appreciating the sterling worth of such young and deserving men, and fully recognizing the fact that it is worth, capability and brains, not salary, that makes the railroad man; therefore be

Resolved, That we, the Harrison and Morton Railroad Club, extend a hearty and cordial greeting to all such men, and will gladly welcome them as brothers in our midst; and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Indianapolis Daily Journal and News, and placed on the minutes of this meeting.

The club's roll of membership is increasing rapidly, and at its next parade there will be fully 1,000 men in line.

Seventh Ward Club.

Last evening the Republicans of the Seventh ward manifested their zeal in behalf of Harrison, Morton and protection by organizing a club with 203 members. The spirit that prompts any locality to do so well as that on a brief call for a meeting indicates an aggressiveness and enthusiasm that can only result in increased victories for the Republican ticket. Several speeches were made, after which officers were elected as follows:

President—W. S. McMillan.

Vice-presidents—John Jordan, Frank Fisher.

Secretary—Walter Roberts.

Treasurer—Levi Marshall.

Executive committee—F. W. Hamilton, R. F. Benoe, Jacob Christian.

The club proposes to add to the list of members until it includes every Republican in the ward and as many converts as each man can procure. Meetings will be held weekly.

In West Indianapolis.

The Republicans of West Indianapolis held a meeting last night in the town hall, and now have a Harrison and Morton Club of ninety-six members. The meeting was characterized by great enthusiasm for the Republican nominees.

It was attended by many Irishmen and railroad employees, who were particularly demonstrative. Washington Stockton was elected permanent president of the club. After these speeches were made by Frank McCoy, Charles Heckman and Harry Fincher. The Republicans of that suburb are wide awake and ready to do effective work during the campaign. Another meeting will be held soon, when it is expected to press the membership of the club to two hundred.

Ready for Escort Duty.

The Harrison Club proposes to turn out as escort to the Illinois Republicans arriving to-morrow. It is desired to have all members of the club report at the meeting to-morrow, the time for which will be announced in Thursday's Journal.

Notes of the Situation.

The Republican county central committee has rooms for the campaign on the first-floor front of the New Denison.

The first ward Harrison and Morton Club will meet in their club-room this evening, 7:30 o'clock. Harry Fincher and others will speak.

The Harrison Hunters will meet at Captain Kingsley's, 64 Fletcher avenue, this evening. All young Republicans are urged to be present.

The Republicans of the Fifteenth ward will meet at No. 6 engine-house to-morrow evening to organize a Harrison and Morton club. A full attendance is desired. There will probably be some addresses delivered.

A Soldier Attempts Suicide.

Ten months ago John W. Nading enlisted in the regular army and was sent to Wyoming Territory. Yesterday he returned home on a furlough to visit his mother, at No. 2153 East Washington street, and to his surprise learned that two brothers and two sisters had died during his absence. He was overcome with grief, and last night attempted to commit suicide by swallowing two ounces of chloroform. Drs. Pace and Barnhill, the two dispensary physicians were called in, and he was treated by electricity. At midnight he was somewhat improved, and the physicians had hopes of his recovery. Nading said he had no desire to live after all his brothers and sisters had died.

AFFAIRS IN THE COURTS.

Ferrand Is Held on the Charge of Man-slaughter.

The preliminary examination of George W. Ferrand, who shot and killed William Maples, near Shannon's lake, last Sunday, occurred yesterday afternoon before Mayor Denny. As there were only two or three witnesses to the affair, the trial did not consume much time. Columbus Leach, a farm hand employed by William Poor, for whom Ferrand also worked, testified that Saturday night he met Maples who remarked that he had heard "Poor's hands were going to clean out the bottoms," meaning several young men who worked for farmers near Waverly. Leach told him there was nothing in the report, and Maples rode away.

Andrew J. Williams, who was present when the killing occurred, and saw it all, said that Maples, Leach and himself were talking when Ferrand came up and borrowed Maples' horse to ride to a neighbor's to see about going to Waverly. When he came back Leach had gone, and the three agreed to walk down the road to Mr. Ronnell's. When they reached Poor's gate Maples started to go in, and Ferrand asked him why he was not going with them to Ronnell's. Maples made some insulting remark, and Ferrand told him if he wanted anything out of him to get off his horse. At that Maples dismounted, and getting a fence rail, rushed at Ferrand. When Maples was in the act of bringing the rail down on Ferrand's head, the latter fired twice. Before shooting, Ferrand told Maples not to advance on him with the rail. The rail, the witness said, was brought down with this force that it was broken into three pieces.

Will Sawyer, a witness, testified substantially the same as Williams. He heard Ferrand tell Maples that he couldn't be bluff, and dared him to get off his horse. The defendant was the last witness, and told almost exactly the same story as Williams. He said he retreated several steps when Maples advanced on him with the rail, and when he saw that Maples intended to draw the fence rail, he fired twice. Both shots, he claimed, were fired while Maples was in the act of striking him, and before the rail reached the ground.

Mayor Denny, in summing up the evidence, stated that he did not believe the facts in the case justified the charge of murder. He therefore held the defendant guilty of manslaughter, and set his bail at $5,000. Ferrand is now in jail, and will be able to secure a bondsman.

Widow Honorable Acquitted.

Charles E. Wilgus, arrested Sunday on a warrant charging him with criminally assaulting his fourteen-year-old daughter, was honorably acquitted by the Mayor yesterday afternoon. The only evidence against him was the testimony of the girl, and her statements were so contradictory that the court gave them no weight.

Mayor Denny, in his charge, said that the girl was untruthful, and that her character was exceedingly bad. An effort is to be made to send her to the House of the Good Shepherd until she has reformed.

Criminal Court Matters.

In the Criminal Court, yesterday, James Jones, charged with grand larceny, was tried by a jury and acquitted. Richard Mosier, indicted for petit larceny, was also tried and acquitted.

The trial of John H. Heitman, for murder, will begin to-day.

In a Hurry to Leave Him.

John D. Brown has petitioned the Superior Court for a divorce from his wife, Belle D. Brown, to whom he was married only last March. He alleges that she deserted him a month after their marriage, and has since been living with her mother at Moline, Ill.

To Be Decided To-day.

The case of the city versus the Citizens' Street-railroad Company will be decided at 9 A. M. to-day, by Judge Walker.

The Willing Will.

The will of the late Daniel Willing was probated yesterday. His estate is divided among his wife and children.

The State-House Work.

The State-house Commissioners have submitted their report for the quarter ending June 30, 1888, to Governor Gray. It is stated that the use of natural gas in the basement of the building, as fuel for the boilers, is a complete success. The piping therefor was done by Kirkhoff & Judd at an expense of $1,107.04, and the east and west sides are connected with the mains of the Indianapolis company, who agree to furnish gas at a cost of $1,800 per year. A surplus of between sixty and seventy tons of coal is on hand which will be reserved in case of an emergency. The ornamental work of the corridors and dome is about completed. The cost of the dome statues which are to be placed in the dome have been out and placed in position on their pedestals, and the statues themselves are now said to be finished, and will arrive in New York from Carrara, Italy, by Aug. 1. The iron work in the elevator shaft and the nettings over the glass roofs of the corridors has been fitted at a cost of $2,720.36. A final settlement has been made for the quarter with the principal contractors, Kammacher & Denig, in which $6,000 was paid them, and orders were given for the unpaid balance, amounting to $22,054.74. This closes all contracts on the building except for the statutory in the dome. The expenditures for the quarter have been $24,285.54, making a total expenditure up to date of $250,876.69.

The Eclipse of the Moon.

The total eclipse of the moon, which will occur next Sunday night, is attracting considerable attention among local astronomers. H. C. Williams, No. 120 Olive street, has, during the last few years, manufactured a sixteen-inch aperture reflecting telescope, costing in the neighborhood of $3,000 for Mr. A. S. Hickley, who resides at No. 427 North Tennessee street, and from whose home observations will be made. Mr. Hickley has produced some excellent photographs of the moon's surface. They are artistically finished and accurate in detail. The eclipse will be visible at 10:30 o'clock, and end at 2 o'clock. Its maximum totality will be reached at exactly midnight, at which time only the dull, coppery outline of the moon will be visible. There will be no special features of interest connected therewith, as it is merely the recurrence of the eclipse that is visible from this earth at the end of every eighteen years and ten days. The earth's shadow at the moon is 6,000 miles in diameter, coming to an apex and forming a conical mass of darkness at a distance of 850,000 miles. A lunar eclipse is of little importance to the economical circles, as it affords no basis for valuable calculation as does a solar eclipse, and the one on Sunday night, as do all others, only affords a sight that goes no further than to satisfy curiosity.

Grade of Teachers.

Harvey M. LaFollette, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has formulated the method of grading teachers as it was adopted at the County Superintendents' Association, held in this city June 28. Two equal factors enter into a teachers' final average, the grade resulting from an examination upon the nine legal branches, and a grade of the item "success," as it is termed. This latter grade is based upon teaching ability, and the general success of the school, each of which is given 50 per cent. as a maximum. The care of school property, keeping of records and reports, and professional interest, each receive 10 per cent. maximum.

New Incorporations.

The D. E. Stone Cabinet Company, of Indianapolis, yesterday filed articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State. It has a capital stock of $15,000. Daniel E. Stone, George R. Ellis and Chas. T. Stone constitute the board of directors for the present year. Articles were also filed for the Terre Haute Building and Loan Association, No. 17. It has $1,000,000 capital. Chas. W. Kane, Geo. F. Paul, W. A. Hamilton, Bertie McCormick and Oscar S. Perkins are named as directors. The South Bend Coates Manufacturing Company was also incorporated. Its stock is $5,000. Jas. S. Coates, L. S. Coates, Chas. M. Patch and Jas. Dushane are its directors.

He referred to the good feeling existing between the company and himself. Refreshments were served, and all present had a very enjoyable time.

A CALL TO A PREACHER.

Dr. Parkhurst Invited to Take Pastoral Charge of Meridian-Street Church.

Rev. Dr. Gilbert's duties as superintendent of the educational department of the International Sunday-school Union will prevent his serving for another year as pastor of Meridian-street Methodist Church, and as a consequence the official board of the church has decided to extend a call to the Rev. Dr. M. M. Parkhurst, pastor of College-avenue M. E. Church at Greencastle, and professor of practical theology in the theological school of DePaul University. Dr. Parkhurst has the reputation of being one of the most entertaining speakers in the country. Well educated in his youth, he has since traveled over almost the entire world. He was for sixteen years a chaplain in the navy, and to that experience has added that of several years as a pastor in the larger cities of the country—namely Chicago. He was in the latter place at the time of the great fire, and, having confidence in the ability of that city to recover readily from a disaster of that kind, he has invested heavily in real estate, and the investments made him independently rich, although he has been at all times liberal, having established a school in Chicago for the training of nurses, and in other ways expended generously of his means. Two years ago his wife's failing health made it necessary for him to leave Chicago. He is a native of Scotland, whom he met in Edinburgh, while traveling in that country. A gentleman who has heard him frequently said yesterday that the wonderful fund of information which Dr. Parkhurst had acquired by his travels would make him entertaining to any audience in the country.

The Demand for Franchises.

The Citizens' Street Railway Company has begun work on its South Side extension, and expects to have several miles of additional track down before winter. The streets on which the tracks are being laid are the same as those named in the Dudley company's charter, and the taking away of the territory makes the acceptance of the charter by the Dudley company very doubtful. The company has two weeks more in which to accept the charter, and the members of the Council state that unless it is accepted they will give the McNeal company the right to come in. The local representatives of that company say they are still ready and willing to build a road, and are urging Council to meet in special session Monday night and pass their ordinance. While several councilmen favor granting the request, the majority believe the Dudley company should be given a fair show.

Results of Accident and Shootings.
